

Endorses ELTON GALLEGLY for Congress

There's no stronger champion of animal welfare in Congress than U.S. Representative Elton Gallegly.

He's the coauthor of legislation to crack down on illegal dogfighting and cockfighting—barbaric practices that result in misery and suffering for millions of animals every year. His bill has 324 cosponsors.

Elton Gallegly has gained top marks on the Humane Society Legislative Fund's Humane Scorecard. He sides with animal welfare advocates on the major battles in Congress to protect animals, including legislation to:

- Stop the inhumane slaughter of America's horses for human consumption overseas
- Crack down on abusive "puppy mills" that treat dogs like production machines
- Halt the sale of "downed" livestock who are too sick or injured to walk
- Increase funding for enforcement of animal welfare laws
- Require evacuation plans for pets in disasters
- Stop the unsporting and dangerous practice of bear baiting on federal lands

Elton Gallegly helped pass several measures to protect animals that are now federal law:

- A law to allow for the adoption of retired military dogs
- A law to ban the sale of sickening animal "crush" videos and other depictions of animal cruelty, such as dogfighting and cockfighting
- A law to ban the trade in lions, tigers, and other big cats for the exotic pet industry

In order to pass humane laws, we need humane lawmakers like Elton Gallegly. Voters in the 24th District who care about animal welfare should support his reelection.
